Reminders and your data

- To decide whether to message you, it uses your baby’s age band, what you bought before and when. It does not use names, photos, addresses or ID numbers.
- Nestling keeps your baby’s birth month (not the exact birthday), your order history and your reminder choice.
- At most one reminder every 7 days.
- If you want to know why you got a message, tap “Why this message?” or ask Nest Helper.
